

The Burian.

May, 1925.

VOL. XVII., No. 2.

Editorial.

IT is with great regret that we announce the illness of our Editor, Mr. Manley; we all hope that he may have a speedy and complete recovery.

Owing to the Editor's illness, we are unable to announce whether a reduction in the price of The Burian will be effected for our next issue, but we are assured that, if more subscribers could be obtained, the reduction in the price of the Magazine would be decided on forthwith.

This term much keenness has been displayed by the members of the Hockey elevens, and for detailed accounts of their matches we would refer you to the following pages.

The latter part of the term has been devoted chiefly to training for the forthcoming Athletic Sports, a full account of which will appear in our next issue.

For the second time, the competition for the inter-House Physical Training Cup, an illustration of which appeared in our last issue, is about to take place, though too late for details to appear in this number, but the contest is certain to be a keen one.

We take this opportunity of thanking The Mayor, Alderman W. J. Caie, J.P., for presenting a Challenge Cup for the new "Inter-House Form Race": also all those who have contributed to the Athletic Sports Prize Fund.

We should also like to thank the Director of the Central Cinema for his kindness to the Grammar School on more than one occasion.

Once again, invaluable assistance has been rendered by the Staff of the Depot, Suffolk Regiment, in the training of the O.T.C. Contingent.

We hope that the ensuing Easter Holidays may form a pleasant break for our readers, and that, with the approach of Spring, we may shake off our Winter sloth, and enjoy the full vigour of the Summer which, we hope, may be an improvement on that of 1924!

To those of our readers who expected to receive their Burian before Easter we tender our regrets that they suffered disappointment. We hope that they may find its receipt all the more acceptable now. The delay has been caused by the ravages of the all-pervading influenza germs. Their attack on the Editor having been nullified by the public-spirited action of the School's most graceful and competent writers who collected or produced the necessary copy, they next laid the compositors low and so prevented the printing of the Magazine. Still "All's well that ends well," and here is the Spring Burian for your perusal and pleasure.

Jottings from an Octogenarian Memory.

Exactly forty-six years ago I was appointed Head Master of King Edward's School, Bury St. Edmunds. The Comptroller of the Governors at that time was the Marquis of Bristol, a very good friend of the School, a regular attendant at Governors' Meetings, as well as on Speech-days, when he sat on the Head Master's right hand, a nobleman of dignified presence, if not of fluent speech. The Governors' Room, on the first floor of the School House, looked out on to the School play-ground, and while I was undergoing the solemn formality of being interviewed by them, a placard, raised on a long pole, moved slowly across the window. The Governor who was nearest the window, or who was most active on his legs, made a dash at the window and pulled down the blind; but not before the words "Vote for Sankey" had been distinctly visible. How could the Governors hesitate any longer? I fancy some of the boys had a notion that I was perhaps a better cricketer than any of the other three who were selected for a personal interview.

The change from Marlborough to Bury was great. In the School, as I found it, were about 40 boys, seven of whom were in the Head Master's house, then, as now, called the School Hall; and of those seven three or four left at the end of my first term. My predecessor, the Rev. A. H. Wratlslaw, had held the office for 24 years, having resigned the Head-Mastership of Felsted School to accept that of Bury. He was an excellent scholar, 4th classic, and especially learned in the Czech language and the history of Bohemia. He was also a great naturalist. He had taught the boys in his House to distinguish the fungi which were edible from the "foul-fleshed agane in the holt," and they used to bring in weird-looking substances, which were duly cooked for them, and which were eaten with great relish, and which, to my relief, produced no unhappy consequences. (N.B.—Why has the cult of edible fungi made so little progress?) In the two top boys of the School he left to his successor an admirable legacy. The Head of the School was George L. King, known to the present generation of Bury boys as Bishop King. Maurice Dewing was Captain of Cricket, the son of an Old Harrowian cricketer, and an active Governor of the School, who lived not far away on the east side of Northgate Street. Maurice Dewing was a Solicitor at Horsham, and died some years ago. As far as my memory serves me, only one new boy entered the School for that summer term; he was John W. Greene, now, I believe, Solicitor and Clerk to the Governors, and still living in the same house as his parents then inhabited.

The School Buildings, on the west side of Northgate Street, were afterwards occupied as, possibly, they still are, by a Girls' School, under the organization of the Church Girls' Day School Company. The large school-room was not a bad room, but the class-room accommodation was most inadequate. On the outside wall in a niche over the entrance door there was a bust of our Royal Founder, King Edward VI. This was supposed to be of some value, and was certainly of some interest and respectable antiquity. It was removed to the new School buildings; but the Governors could never agree on any suitable place for it. In spite of my remonstrances, it lay, with some rubbish, outside the building, until it was found broken in pieces. It had probably served as a cockshy for some workmen in a sportive mood, and, being only of plaster, did not survive the novel use to which it was put; the fragments received decent burial somewhere in the adjacent shrubbery. At the back of the old School buildings there was a small paddock or playground, with one or two five-courts and a few practice nets, from which a good drive endangered the windows of the School House. On half-holidays practice games were played in a field on the right-hand side of the Fornham road beyond the railway-bridge. There was on these occasions a custom which struck the new Head Master as rather curious, and which, I think, did not long survive: in the middle of the afternoon a small sum was collected, and a boy was despatched to a neighbouring public-house to buy beer for the refreshment of the players. I do not know that any great harm ever came of it, but it was obviously contra bonos mores.

The first match, which I remember, was with the Bury and West Suffolk Club. The Club had got together a strong team to play some important match; their opponents threw them over with little or no notice, and, to avoid further disappointment, an urgent request was sent to ask the School eleven to take the place of the defaulters. With proper sporting spirit the School consented, though they had little doubt of the result. The Club had then two redoubtable bowlers, tall in stature and swift in pace, Edward Lake (fast left hand) and Augustus Blake (fast right). The School team was strengthened by the Head Master and the Mathematical Master (Edward Carpenter) who was a fair all-round performer. My memory does not retain more of the events of the day than that the School was all out for about 70, of which the new Head Master made 35; and they suffered a defeat, though not an ignominious one. But no more of such personal reminiscences! Everyone knows how fallacious they are—how "Memory swells with magic spells, Forgotten scores and catches!"

Matches were played annually against Norwich and Ipswich Grammar Schools: one year we would play the Norwich boys at Norwich, and the Ipswich boys on the Bury Town ground, as we had no ground of our own; the next year our eleven went to Ipswich, and the Norwich boys came to Bury. No masters, of course, played in these matches; and though we had fewer boys to choose from, I do not remember that we suffered an undue proportion of defeats. There were also matches with neighbouring clubs, the most distant of these expeditions was to Garboldisham Hall, the residence of C. T. Montgomerie, whose very name must revive many memories among a large circle of cricketers; one of the most enjoyable games was against Ickworth Park; may one who enjoyed these games, gratefully recall the names of Turner and Lainson? A Master always accompanied the eleven on these excursions; the brake, as it returned in the evening, roused the echoes of Northgate Street with cheers; the resulting noise may be imagined from the popular opinion that the severer the defeat the more vociferous the cheering.

My readers will criticise these informal jottings from two points of view. Devotees of football may justly complain that I have treated their winter game with contemptuous silence. I must defend myself by the plea that I never played football at Bury; and was not even capable of an intelligent criticism of the play, as I had always been used to the Rugby game. Sterner critics may object that a School exists primarily for the sake of work and not of games, and it ill becomes a schoolmaster of nearly forty years' experience to ignore the most important side of school life. But that subject is too big and too serious; if I began boldly to discuss changes in curriculum, methods of teaching and similar topics, I might be tempted into unseemly dogmatism or untimely sermonizing; so I will end these jottings by recalling just one more impression, how on certain high days, when the Mayor and Corporation attended St. James' Church in civic state, we were solemnly reminded in the stately words of the Bidding Prayer that the Royal School exists not for objects of personal gain or pleasure, but "that there may never be wanting a due supply of men to serve God in Church and State"—a need that is quite as great in 1925, as at any epoch since the School was founded nearly four centuries ago.

The Sports.

The Sports were held on Thursday, April 2nd. The morning promised a fine day, but the afternoon was dull, and rain somewhat spoiled the proceedings, although it failed to damp the enthusiasm of the competitors. Many of the boys' Parents, Old Boys, and friends of the School were present.

The Officers of the Course were:—

President and Treasurer: The Head Master; Hon. Sec., Mr. Manley; Time Keeper: Mr. Hendin; Starter: Mr. McGlone; Clerk of the Course: Mr. Seymour.

The Judges were: The Head Master, Mr. T. Richdale, Mr. Ridley Hooper, and the Rev. F. Smith.

The Committee: D. Alston, W. E. R. Bond, G. G. Carter, C. F. Lacey, G. V. Richdale, and R. A. R. Robinson.

The Stewards: Mr. Dancy and Mr. Dalton.

Robinson, who won the Champion Cup with 38 points, ran very well indeed, his time for the School 100 Yards (11 secs.), being very good. He was first in the 100 Yards, 220 Yards, Quarter Mile and Long Jump; second in the Mile, and third in the High Jump and the Cricket Ball. A very creditable performance! Abbott also ran well, winning the Cross Country and the Mile, and coming second in the Quarter Mile and Long Jump, and third in the 100 Yards. Bacon, who won the "Under 15" Cup, ran very well, as also did Marshall ii., who was third in the Cross Country.

This year two new races were introduced into the programme. These were, an Old Boys' Race, and an Inter-House Form Race, both of 100 Yards. In the latter race one member from each House in each form ran; there were thus five separate races, and the House which scored the highest total of points won. A fine Silver Cup has been presented for this race by His Worship the Mayor (Alderman W. J. Caie). The Tudors carried off this trophy. The Relay Race of one mile was this year won by the Yorkists, who broke their own record of 4 mins. 12½ secs., by covering the distance in 4 mins. ½ secs.

The Old Boys again gave a fine Cup for the Cross Country, and the Comptroller, the Rev. Dr. Gray, gave a Cup for the Open Quarter Mile, in memory of his own achievements in that race.

Other prizes and donations were given by: Mrs. Wadmore, Mrs. J. M. Wadmore, Lord Bristol, Sir John Wood, Lt.-Col. the Rt. Hon. W. Guinness, M.P., the Ven. W. T. Farniloe, J. W. Alston, Esq., L. C. Bacon, Esq., Dr. B. E. A. Batt, the Rev. A. R. H. Faithful, the Head Master, Dr. J. S. Hinnell, D. Hunter, Esq., T. E. Richdale, Esq., Major Sampson, the Rev. F. E. Smith, and G. H. Lipscomb, Esq.

At the conclusion of the programme the company adjourned to the Big School, where the Mayoress presented the winners with their prizes. The Head Master then made a speech in which he thanked Mrs. Caie for so kindly consenting to distribute the prizes. He also thanked those gentlemen who had helped to judge, and also all Old Boys and friends of the School who had contributed to the Prize Fund. He called for three cheers for the Mayoress.

The Mayor, replying on behalf of the Mayoress, said that it had given Mrs. Caie and himself great pleasure to attend these Sports, and he congratulated Col. Wadmore and all concerned on the excellent programme that had been carried out. Hearty cheers were given for Col. and Mrs. Wadmore, who then entertained the visitors to tea in the Dining Hall.

Cambridge Letter.

PETERHOUSE,
CAMBRIDGE.

Although people often say the Lent Term is very dull, I am inclined to think that 1925 has been an exception. For one thing the weather has been a little better, although for a few days in the middle of the term we looked like being flooded out, but the floods abated.

The Rag featuring the unveiling of Eros on the Market Square was a great success and helped to brighten up the end of the term. The presence of two flower girls from London added much to the success of the proceedings. Maybe they will remain in Cambridge and sell their flowers to us instead of to Londoners. No doubt all readers have seen pictures of the Rag in the various papers, so a detailed description here would be out of place.

J. Ashton has honoured us with his presence three days a week by attending a course of Law lectures. It is rumoured that on the morning of the Rag he came all the way from Bury to his lecture to find everyone, except the lecturer, in the streets, so he and his learned teacher watched the proceedings from the window. I hope he got his money back for that day's lecture.

A. S. Waugh is working hard with the Press, although I believe he finds time for amusement occasionally. I was told by one in authority that he spent a very pleasant evening at the Peoples' Theatre, and wrote a very good account of the company. I also gathered that the leading lady very much impressed him, in fact so much so that he devoted a special paragraph to her. For further details I must refer readers to the Cambridge Daily.

W. J. Thompson has played in many important Rugger Matches, including one for the County of Hereford. Although his side lost on that occasion I am told that his excellent performance saved them from a much heavier defeat. But Rugger is not the only game Thompson can play. The other day he was having tea with Ashton and me, and we were talking about a great tennis player who had recently married a great tennis playeuse, when suddenly Thompson said, "O! that man, yes, he is fairly good, I remember, beating him in a tournament last year." Of course Ashton and I treated the whole thing as a joke, but Thompson was very annoyed, and with much blushing emphasised the truth of his statement. Thereupon I asked him for a detailed account of the match so that I might send it to The Burian, but all he said was "Oh! no, you know, we good players, you know, never say anything about our performances, you know." "Very well," says I, "I'll find out all about it from someone else." So I hope anyone who saw this match, or who knows anything about it, will communicate with me at once, because I think such great players as our worthy Old Boy should be better known to the public.

Having, no doubt, bored everyone quite enough I will close down, wishing the School the best of luck and hoping to hear of new records at the Sports and good batting and bowling averages next term.

G. J. H.

Sir Sidney Ashley Burt Sitwell.

There must be a good many old Burians about the age of 50 who will remember the towering inches and the genial presence of S. A. H. Sitwell, but who may have failed to notice his name among the recipients of Knighthood in the List of New Year's Honours. He is the London Manager of the Imperial Bank of India, and the honour was conferred on him in recognition of important services to the Government in that capacity.

Hockey.

THE SCHOOL v. THE EAST ANGLIAN SCHOOL.

This match, the first of the term, was played on the E.A.S. ground, on Saturday, February 7th. The play of both sides was of rather a rough nature. The score at half time was 3—0 in favour of the E.A.S. Time came with the result 7—0 in favour of the E.A.S.

W. F.

Team.—Fletcher (Captain), goal; Shearing, Richdale, backs; Wright, Alston, Carter, halves; Vigors, Fulcher, Jones ii., Robinson, Bond, forwards.

THE SCHOOL v. ELY.

Played on the Ely ground, which was soft. The game was fairly fast. The School had rather more of the play in the first half, but Ely were wonderfully energetic, and were the first to score. In a scramble in front of the Ely goal, Fulcher put the School on level terms.

In the second half, play was of an exciting nature, Ely trying to force matters soon scored. The School then attacked strongly and good work by all the forwards resulted in Gould scoring. The result 2—2, was quite representative of the game; all members of the School team worked hard. D. A.

Team.—Fletcher, goal; Shearing, Richdale, backs; Carter, Alston, Abbott, halves; Bond, Fulcher, Gould, Robinson, Johnson ii., forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. BURY TOWN 2ND XI.

This match was played at home, on February 21st, on a dull day. The ground was in good condition despite recent bad weather. The School lost the toss, and played down the hill first. Bury scored after about ten minutes' play, and Fulcher soon equalized with a fine wing shot. Bury then scored again, and Lovelock equalized. After some rather loose hitting Bury again scored, and Mr. Manley this time equalized the scores. Just before half time Bury scored once more, making the tally 4—3.

Almost immediately after half time Bury scored, and for some time the School's chances looked bad. Then Lovelock and Alston scored in quick succession making things equal once more. Bury scored one more goal, but Gould brought the scores level just before time. Thus a very good match resulted in a draw, 6 all.

Alston played excellently at centre-half, and Gould, Johnson ii., and Lovelock, played a good game in the forward line. C. V. R.

Team.—Fletcher (Captain), goal; Pike i., Richdale, backs; Wright i., Alston, Robinson, halves; Lovelock, Fulcher i., Gould, Mr. Manley, Johnson ii., forwards.

ROYALISTS v. FOREIGNERS.

This match was played on Thursday, March 26th, under favourable conditions and amid great excitement. The Royalists, who had much the stronger side, outplayed the Foreigners and won by 5—2. The first half was hardly contested and Alston at inside right played a fine game but was not sufficiently supported. The score at half time was 2—1 in the Royalists' favour.

In the second half strength and weight told and in spite of valiant efforts by the Foreigners the Royalists had the major portion of the play. Richdale and Shearing at back and all three halves, Carter, Thurlow and Wright, putting in good work while Gould played an excellent game at centre-forward and scored four times. Bond also made several good runs and scored. The Foreigners' goals were scored by Alston and Jones i.

Royalists.—Randell, goal; Shearing, Richdale (Captain), backs; Abbott, Carter, Pike i., halves; Wright, Jones ii., Gould, Bond, Johnson ii., forwards. Referee, Mr. Fulcher.

Foreigners.—Morley, goal; Fletcher (Captain), Fulcher, backs; Parks, Robinson, Jones i., halves; Lovelock, Whiting, Vigers, Alston, Marshall ii., forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. CLARE.

This match was played on the School ground, on Saturday, February 28th. The ground was in a slippery condition, as the result of recent rain. The School forwards started off well, and after some time Alston scored, the visitors soon equalized and before half time they scored again. Half time came with the score 2—1. After play was resumed the School made several determined rushes, but were unable to score owing to the visitors' sound defensive play. The visitors broke away and scored again twice, the match resulting in a loss for the School of 4—1. J. J.

Team.—Fletcher (Captain), goal; Mr. Hendin, Richdale, backs; Carter, Alston, Robinson, halves; Lovelock, Mr. Manley, Gould, Bond, Johnson ii., forwards.

THE SCHOOL v. THE EAST ANGLIAN SCHOOL.

This match was played on the School ground in ideal hockey weather. The E.A.S. were the first to attack, their forwards being very dangerous in front of goal. However, the School's defence was good. Then as the game wore on, the School began to combine better and to play a good all-round game. However, the E.A.S. succeeded in scoring more often than the School, and eventually ran out winners by 7 goals to 2.

C. F. G.

Team.—Fletcher (Captain), goal ; Wright, Abbott, backs ; Carter, Alston, Robinson, halves ; Bond, Fulcher i., Gould, Vigers, Johnson ii., forwards.

THE SCHOOL v. BURY TOWN 2ND XI.

This match was played on the Victory Ground, on Saturday, March 14th. Play was spoilt by a continual drizzle, which made the ground very slippery. Bury Town scored first, after a few unsuccessful rushes. Mr. Manley then equalized for the School.

At half time the score was 1—1. In the second half Gould scored for the School, but Bury Town, although they made several fine attempts could not equalize. Thus the match ended in a win for the School, 2—1 ; the first of the season.
G. G. C.

Team.—Fletcher (Captain), goal ; Richdale, Mr. Hendin, backs ; Robinson, Alston, Carter, halves ; Johnson ii., Abbott, Gould, Mr. Manley, Bond, forwards. Umpire, Thurlow.

THE SCHOOL v. THE OLD BOYS.

The Old Boys won the toss and decided to play down the hill. The game was very fast and soon the Old Boys got through and scored. Gould then put a goal in from a good centre of Johnson's. Four more goals were scored alternately after which the Old Boys added three more. Some very good hockey ensued in the second half and the School was within an ace of scoring from several rushes. The Old Boys managed to add one more goal to their score, and thus won a most enjoyable match by 7 to 3.
W. E. R. B.

Old Boys.—Steed, goal ; Stearn, Cook, backs ; S. Yelloly, G. J. Hinnell (Captain), Seth, halves ; J. Ashton, McGlone, Kilner, Birmingham, Fulcher, forwards.

School.—Fletcher (Captain), goal ; Richdale, Shearing, backs ; Robinson, Carter, Wright, halves ; Bond, Vigers, Gould, Alston, Johnson ii., forwards. Umpires, Mr. Haddon and Thurlow.

SCHOOL v. BARRACKS.

Played at home, March 26th. The game started with the School playing down hill, the Barracks quickly got going and scored straight away. Then from a clearance by the School defence, Johnson ii. ran down and scored with a splendid cross-shot. Our opponents then scored twice more before half time.

On the resumption of play both sides battled hard, both defences being called upon. Then Fulcher added a goal to the School score ; hard and quick play took place till the final whistle, when the score was 3—2 contra.

Team.—Fletcher (Captain), goal ; Shearing, Richdale, backs ; Carter, Robinson, Abbott, halves ; Lovelock, Fulcher, Gould, Alston, Johnson ii., forwards. A. G. S.

1ST XI. HOCKEY CHARACTERS.

- *W. FLETCHER (Captain, goal). Has expended considerable thought and pains on his team. Has played some good games in goal. Through the absence of the School backs he has frequently been called upon to bear more than his fair share of the brunt of the attack.
- *D. ALSTON (Vice-Captain, centre-half). Has been a great help to the team, is hard working but rather inclined to keep the ball to himself.
- *G. RICHDALÉ (right back). Has proved himself to be an excellent back, exhibits great energy and initiative, clears hard and accurately.
- *J. JOHNSON II. (outside right). A very hard working and reliable player, handicapped by his size, but makes ground and centres well.
- ||C. GOULD (centre forward). Is very good on his day, but has too many off days. Has done most of the scoring. Should follow up the ball and not hang back when another forward shoots.
- ||G. CARTER (left half). Is rather slow, usually manages to get the ball, but should tackle into his man more. Feeds his forwards admirably.

- ||R. ROBINSON (right half). Is inclined to lose heart in a losing match, but has now found his feet and has shown to advantage, his passing is rather hard for his forwards. Needs to mingle dash with discretion.
- ||A. SHEARING (right back). Is a very safe back, who seems always to be in the right place. Is inclined to be dangerous and should avoid under-cutting.
- W. BOND (outside left). Makes ground but should try to control the ball more and keep it from crossing the goal line. Shoots strongly but erratically. Tries hard.
- K. ABBOTT (inside right). Tries hard, should shoot directly he reaches the circle, and then follow his shot right up to the goal mouth. Has played well in the back division.
- L. FULCHER I. (inside left). Is very slow, but makes great efforts, his shooting is fairly good, must learn to follow up and to tackle.

Also played :—

- E. WRIGHT (left half). A hard worker, handicapped by size, needs to get the ball to his forwards more quickly.
- O. LOVELOCK (outside left). Is small, when centring he should try and place the ball in front of his forwards, is rather inclined to stick.
- A. VIGORS (inside right). Makes way, but does not shoot when he reaches the circle.

2ND XI. HOCKEY CHARACTERS.

- *E. T. WHITING (inside left). A popular and energetic Captain. Plays a very hard game, his tackling and following up are exceptionally good; is apt to try to do too much himself and should endeavour to avoid sticking and sitting down.
- *C. F. LACEY (outside right). Has not really found his place in the field; at forward he should endeavour to make more ground. Sticks to his man, and tackles well.

- *H. J. PIKE (right back). A safe player, slow but sure, clears hard. Has been the mainstay of the team.
- ||J. N. MORLEY (goal). Generally plays very well. Must get back in goal quicker after running out; clears well.
- ||H. THURLOW (centre half). Plays a hard game at half, following up the forwards well. Is rather inclined to overrun them.
- ||H. W. HENSHALL (left back). Has improved immensely during the season. Tackles excellently, but should endeavour to clear harder. A promising player.
- O. F. LOVELOCK (outside left). Has filled this difficult position well. Centres hard and accurately. Plays well with his inside, but should endeavour to make more ground before centring.
- E. BAKER (left half). Has much improved, should try to tackle right in, instead of worrying round his man. Hits hard, but is rather slow.
- J. CLARKE (inside right). Has helped the forward line considerably. Passes neatly, but should shoot quicker.
- F. TURNER (right half). Is rather slow at present, but he gets into the man. Must follow the forwards up more.
- F. H. JONES (centre forward). A useful forward who is quick on the ball, but holds it rather long, follows up well, but must keep on-side.

Also played :—

- H. W. JONES (centre forward). Should endeavour to make more ground, and to shoot quicker. His stick work is neat.
- S. LUMMES (left back). Rather slow but a very steady back. Clears hard.
- A. RANDELL (goal). Is very alert, should make an excellent goalkeeper; at present is rather small. Uses his hands, and clears well.

Games Review and Prospect.

The Hockey Season started with high hopes and only four of last year's players. The hopes are still high, the hockey has improved, and the results to date are better than those of last year despite illness, bad weather, and scratched matches. Shearing and Richdale are as good a pair of backs as the School has ever possessed; it is unfortunate that illness and absence has robbed the team of their aid on several important occasions. Alston, whether playing at centre-half or in the forward line, has done excellent work, while Gould at centre-forward has played brilliantly on occasion, and Johnson ii. at outside-right has consistently played a good game. The forward line has been the weakest; it has shown little power of combination and ability to shoot. Time for practicing in a brief, busy term has been far too short, even when no opportunity has been let slip. The shortening of break and the suspension of other activities at 12 on Mondays for the sake of a longer and more representative practice has been much appreciated.

The 2nd XI. has shaped well and several of its players have usefully filled positions in the 1st XI, when vacancies occurred, and Thurlow has done good service as an umpire.

The House matches have been contested with much vigour, and the Tudors are to be congratulated on winning the Hockey Shield. They have established a record in scoring 69 points out of a possible 72, and compiling 50 goals against their rivals' 13. Their most serious rivals were the Yorkists, who had a very nicely-balanced team. The number of House matches to be played in future terms is to be limited to 3, that more time may be gained for the School XI. The Dayboys scored a well-deserved win by 5-2 in the Royalists and Foreigners match, the boarders played gamely, but were out-matched.

Messrs. Fulcher and Birmingham have kindly umpired matches, and we tender our best thanks for their services. We also desire to thank Mr. Hendin for his invaluable help in coaching, playing and umpiring.

We are looking forward in pleasurable anticipation to cricket next month in spite of the weather's suggestion that a summer is but a remote possibility. A very full fixture list has been arranged, and we expect to have a number of the members of last year's team in the eleven again. The square is in perfect order and the outfield has received constant attention, and the finishing touches will be made during the holidays.

Just now the preparations for the Sports are occupying most of our leisure and out-of-school attention. The innovation of having the P. T. instructor, Sergeant Parrish, who is a specialist in this department, as a trainer and instructor, should bear good fruit. The rolling of the track by the Houses thrice daily has greatly improved it, and tends to speed up the races, some of which should be quite thrilling. Two new races have been added to the Sports programme—an inter-house Form Race and an Old Boys' Race, both of which command the maximum of interest. The points for the Relay Race will not be counted towards the Challenge Cup because it is primarily an inter-house event, and consequently the Royalists have the advantage of putting two teams in the field to the Foreigners' one.

In conclusion, we wish to extend our most hearty and sincere thanks to all those ladies and gentlemen who have helped as officers of the course, as donors of prizes, and in many other invaluable ways towards the enjoyment of a delightful Sports Day.

O.T.C. Notes.

A good deal of drill has been done on the field this term. About 19 parades have been completed, and the Corps is feeling quite ready for the General Inspection and Camp next term. This year the Corps is going to Tidworth Pennings, on Salisbury Plain, for Camp.

A team of boys competed for the "Country Life" Shooting Cup this term. The result is not yet known.

The Corps went on a Field Day to Cambridge on March 4th, where they had a very enjoyable day.

On February 17th Sgt. Richdale passed the practical part of Certificate "A." He also passed the theoretical exam., which he took on March 10th.

Field Day.

On Wednesday, 4th March, the O.T.C. Contingent took part with Cambridge contingents in a field day to the east of Cambridge.

We formed two companies of the enemy, each platoon acting as a company, pro. tem. We wore white cap-bands, and the L. G. sections had white flags, the rifle sections blue. We were to hold a position S.S.E. of Fulbourn against four battalions of the attacking forces. Our contingent was holding an old railway embankment 200 yards N.W. of the Icknield Way. From this embankment a fine view could be obtained of the country in front. The engineers were laying a line of gunpowder in front of us, to represent shells bursting, while bombing and contact aeroplanes were constantly flying over us. At 2.45 the enemy's movements were obscured by a smoke cloud, and a few minutes later we came under the full force of the enemy attack.

We were forced to retire across the Icknield Way, and take up a position in a field on the other side, under considerable opposition from hostile aircraft. There we succeeded in holding the enemy up, but Cpl. Bond was captured. After some sharp firing the enemy were forced to abandon their objective, and we marched off to hot cocoa and food, victorious.

We were allowed to inspect some of the aeroplanes after the operations were over. Two char-a-bancs took us home, just in time for prep.

Scout Notes.

Owing to the fact that the weather this term has not been suitable for doing much Scout work out of doors, we have been forced to do most of it inside. It has consisted, chiefly, of trying to get as many Scouts as possible through Second Class tests. A large number have been successful in passing nearly all the tests. It is good to get this branch of work done now, as it will leave more time for open-air games, fire lighting and cooking next term. We have, however, done some drill out on the field.

We have made several innovations this term. A flag, the flag of our country, is now hoisted before us at the beginning of each parade. It reminds us of our privilege of being Britons. As the Scoutmaster pointed out at first, the Blue in it reminds us of the sea on which our greatness has been built up; the Red, of those who have given their blood for us; the White, of the clean and pure lives we must live.

We have further reminders of the same subjects in nicely-framed pictures of the King, Prince of Wales, and the Chief Scout.

Another new departure has been the setting up of a Scout Library. The books are of two sorts—Scout Stories and books aiming at helping us to pass tests and become useful in life. These books are issued weekly to boys who have not lost marks for their patrol.

The Patrol Competition has been continued. There has been a great diminution in the number of marks lost; also an improvement in smartness of turn out. This term extra marks have been gained by many who have learnt, in the Knot Games, to tie knots quickly and accurately. The winners last term in the Competition were the Woodpigeons. There will be prizes awarded to each boy in the winning patrol this term.

As last year, there will be a special race in the Sports for Scouts. The stretcher race proved so successful that we are repeating it. We trust that the patients will not be frozen this year.

Though the weather hardly suggests it, we are already beginning to look forward to, and make plans for, camp in the summer. The outdoor work of next term should help us to make camp this year an even greater success than it was last.

At Christmas we lost Ratcliffe, who returned to Australia, and Home and Lee, who moved on to the Corps.

Promotions this term have been:—

To Patrol-Leader, Smith and Randell;

To Second, Gent i.

Old Boys' Notes.

The following Old Boys played Hockey for Suffolk against Norfolk, on January 22nd, at Norwich. T. M. Ashton, R. T. Robins, J. N. B. Ashton, C. R. Yelloly and G. J. Hinnell. The game was very keen and resulted in a win for Suffolk by 4—0. T. M. Ashton, Captain, played a very good game at centre forward and was largely responsible for the victory.

The Bury Hockey Club to which many Old Boys belong is doing very well this year. So far they have won 11 and lost only 3. A record of which Bury School should be proud.

C. R. Yelloly is managing a farm at Gedding, near Bury. We hear he lives on milk, butter, cheese, bread and beer, and 25/- a week. He finds this diet very nourishing; ask the weighing scale attendant at Boots! His chief exercise is ferreting, which he enjoys over the week-end. This causes the Bury Hockey Secretary much trouble. Ask J.N.B.A.

"There was an old man of Calcutta," no, no, we mean S. W. Yelloly, who is now practicing law at Haverhill. All briefs thankfully received, but must not be too brief!

A. L. Morton, or the Indian rope trick, is now teaching in Sussex. We wonder how he likes using the stick instead of having it used. Ask B.S.R.

A. S. Waugh is now in Cambridge with the Press. We hope he is having a good time and "reporting well."

G. D. Fulcher is studying the insides of animals and finds Abbeygate Street very interesting. Ask him if sheep Bar well.

J. N. B. Ashton, besides playing Hockey and Badminton is attending a course of law lectures at Cambridge. He is learning his way along the "Late and Never Early" line very well.

C. J. Hinnell is still at the Bank of England. We don't hear much of him except the crisping of notes, the wielding of a hockey stick, and the fact that he has brought the art of licking his thumb to a nicety.

W. Darwin, at Cambridge, is still going strong. Although not playing cricket this term he keeps a good length (over 6 ft.), and has tortoiseshell scaffolding supporting his eyes and nose.

Max Morton is still at Ipswich School. We hear he hopes to go up to Cambridge shortly. We wish him the best of luck.

G. W. Harding is now with a firm of Chartered Secretaries in Finsbury Circus. Best of luck Gerald.

W. J. McGlone, otherwise Joey, is doing Press Photography work at Newmarket. We hear he has much trouble in persuading the horses to smile while he snaps them.

R. E. Dowse, better known as Bob and a whole lot of other names, has our best wishes for his examination in Estate Agency this March.

E. F. Carliell has left Bury and has taken up duties in the Brewery, at Sudbury. We hope this distance will not prevent him from paying us numerous visits.

R. C. Gooch has our best wishes for his study of Auctioneering.

E. F. Wise is patiently waiting for the next Election. Lucky Bradford!

H. A. Conlan has left Bury for London, where he is working hard. Best of luck "Tick."

G. H. Lipscomb, of King's College, London, will shortly be reversing his collar. Really, Labby, we can hardly believe it. How funny you will look!

H. Ranyell is to be seen at Training Farms, Goudhurst. The only thing the Secretary knows about him is that he has paid his subscription for 1925. Why don't other Old Boys follow his good example?

Fiction Library.

The following have presented books this term:—

W. A. Crack	"Greyhouse Days."
R. Gethen	"Gulliver's Travels." Also several books for younger boys.
G. W. Gowen	"Three Men in a Boat."
E. T. W. Whiting ..	"The South Sea Whaler."

The Librarian expresses his gratitude to the donors.

A consignment of new books was bought with the term's funds.

More dayboys are heartily invited to join.

We have been pleased to see the following Old Boys up this term:—Messrs. J. Ashton, Birmingham, Bowyer, G. Fulcher, G. J. Hinnell, C. Hinnell, C. R. Richdale, R. Dowse, W. Crack, E. Cook, G. Seth, H. Coates, J. McGlone and G. H. Lipscomb.

The following boys have been prepared for Confirmation this term:—Bacon, Jones ii, Fulcher i, Henshall, Nunn, Jarman, Brighton i, Pike i, Johnson ii and Farrow i. They were confirmed by the Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich on Friday, April 24th.

Dancing classes have been started again this term, and many of the senior boys have greatly improved their understanding on the subject.

Early in the term Mr. Burt gave an extremely interesting lecture on "Russia in the Making." The lecture was illustrated by lantern slides, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed it.

The Vth Form have again started a Form Magazine, and three copies have been issued this term. Whiting is editor, Alston sub-editor, and Gowen art editor. In their capable hands we feel sure it will be a success.

On March 28th a number of boys went to see "The Merchant of Venice," produced at the local theatre by an amateur company.

At the end of the Christmas term there was a concert in the Big School. There were a few parents present, and a collection was made in aid of the "Tryphena Christmas Dinner Fund." Of the items on the programme the Household Band was easily the noisiest.

The School attended Divine Service at the Cathedral on Ash Wednesday. Canon Goldsmith preached the sermon.

A new armoury is being built by the side of the gym. This is badly needed, and everyone will appreciate this addition to the School buildings.

The majority of the Corps are again going to see the Royal Army and Navy Tournament at Olympia this year. All who went last year will remember how interesting it was.

The inter-House P. T. Competition was held on Tuesday, March 31st. Major Balders was the examining officer, and he spoke highly of the standard attained by all three Houses. The Lancastrians won the cup with 96 points out of 150, the Yorkists obtaining 91 points, and the Tudors 90. A very close competition!
