March, 1928.

VOL. XVIII, No. 3.

Editorial.

THE outstanding events of the Term have been the full inspection of the School by two of His Majesty's Inspectors, whose report we are awaiting with considerable interest; and the splendid team work of the first eleven which, ably captained by Johnson, possessed the finest forward line the School has yet produced.

The other activities of the School have proceeded on normal lines. The Corps under the command of Lieutenant Dancy are as smart as ever. The Scouts who have entered a competition open to all the Bury Troops seem, if possible, even more active than their wont, while the P.T. squads are engaged upon a new and intricate series of rhythmic motions.

We regret to record the death of Dr. H. Goff Kilner, M.B., B.S., M.R.C.S.Eng., L.R.C.P. Lond., of 113, Northgate Street, an Old Boy and friend of the School, whom many Burians will remember with kindly regard.

In this issue we have pleasure in presenting to our readers a further instalment of Reminiscences of Life at Bury School in the old days. This time our article is from the pen of Major H. H. Nurse, late Indian Army.

We are indebted to G. H. T. Grudgings, Esq., for the gift of a handsome silver cup. The trophy has been presented as a memento of his son's connection with the School 2nd XI. A. E. T. Grudgings was captain of the very successful 2nd XI. football team last term. The cup has been allocated to a 2nd XI. Royalists' and Foreigners' football match.

It is pleasant to be able to record the increasing interest that many Old Boys are exhibiting in the School. Their attachment is shown in many ways. An increasing number are joining the O.B.'s Association which now receives into its ranks most Burians as they leave School. Besides these recruits a number of Old Boys of longer standing have also recently joined up and not a few have strengthened the bond by sending their sons to Bury to carry on the family tradition. As a result the Foreigners are now almost as numerous as the Royalists, and next term the House will be filled to capacity with 50 boarders.

We would draw the attention of all Old Boys to the pages of the Magazine dealing specially with their interests, and wish to direct their attention most particularly to the paragraph referring to the Bury School List, Suffolk Green Book, No. 18, which it is desired to bring up to date.

In conclusion we wish our readers all the joys of Spring and Eastertide, and take our leave commending the more fortunate to the pleasures of a well-earned holiday and the contemplation of a glorious Summer term.

Reminiscences of Bury School.

1874—1882.

I shall never forget the trepidation I felt when, as a very small, and somewhat delicate boy, I first entered Bury Grammar School. While at a Dame's School it had been almost the height of my ambition to be a Grammar School Boy. I looked upon the boys in the 6th Form and the leading players in the Football and Cricket elevens as little short of demigods, and upon the masters as the most important men in the town. The Mayor and Corporation weren't in it compared with them!

In those days there were two preparatory schools in Bury for the Grammar School, viz., Mrs. Crick's school in Well Street and Miss Wing's school in Sparhawk Street. It was the former that I had been at for two-and-a-half years. Mrs. Crick was a dear, good old soul, and many times after leaving school I enjoyed her hospitality; though we, as her pupils, stood in wholesome awe of her, and amongst ourselves irreverently referred to her as "old Mother Crick."

I have read with much interest the reminiscences of Mr. C. Sankey and the Revd. R. F. Cobbold, which appeared in the Burian of 1925. Many of the incidents related by them I well remember; and I will now try to recall a few other occurrences which I think deserve a better fate than being relegated to oblivion.

I was, on entering, placed bottom of the 1st Form, the master of the 1st and 2nd Forms being the Revd. C. Wesson. He was a meek and mild little man, and wore glasses. Sometimes when his back was turned we used to begin to play or otherwise misbehave ourselves: and he would see our doings reflected on his glasses—to our surprise, and not seldom to our vexation!

School used to begin at 8.30 a.m. (in the winter at 9 a.m.) and it was the custom for the boys in the upper 6th Form to take it in turns, a week each, to read prayers and afterwards call the roll. On one occasion it was the turn of G. L. King (now Bishop King). He was rather late in arriving from Great Barton that morning, and did a sprint from the end of Northgate Street to the school which he reached in a puffing and blowing condition just before the door closed. He began reading prayers, but it was soon evident that he couldn't go on long. Eventually he had to give it up as a bad job, handing the book to Mr Wratlslaw who finished the prayers for him.

At the end of afternoon school when Mr. Wratlslaw had been taking a class in the big schoolroom he would read prayers: and the way in which he invariably used to "twiddle" his watch-chain the while caused some amusement to us boys, as did also the inflection of his voice at certain parts of the various prayers.

The Revd. R. F. Cobbold, in his reminiscences in the Burian, relates that Mr. Wratlslaw was very fond of propounding the theory that the origin of the word "Witsun" was traceable in a more or less direct manner from the word "Pentecost." He also mentions "Bob" Perkins. In my Cambridge days, an old Bury boy, who had been in the 6th Form as a contemporary of Cobbold and Perkins, related to me that on one occasion when the derivation had been traced as usual by Mr. Wratlslaw, the said "Bob" Perkins replied "Well Sir, if you come to that, I can derive any word you please: for instance, I can derive the word 'buskins' from 'orbis veteribus notus!'" (there was hanging in the room a map of which the title was "orbis [terrarum] veteribus notus").

Mr. Wratlslaw, whose nickname, by the bye, was "old Peg," on detecting any deviation from conventional conduct would sometimes exclaim "Come, mores! mores!" Perkins once followed this with the remark "Sir, I'm surprised to hear you say that. I thought everyone knew that 'cum' governed the ablative, and it should be 'cum moribus!'" Mr. Wratlslaw laughed heartily and considered it a very good joke.

In the 6th Form room was a clock which Mr. Wratlslaw used to wind up every day, and not infrequently used to drop the key into the fender. One day, being uncertain whether he had wound it up or not, he asked "Have I wound up the clock?" Perkins, it is said, replied "I think not, Sir, because I haven't heard the key drop."

The 5th November was known as "Goose and Wine day," as Mr. Wratlslaw's custom was to celebrate his birthday each year on that date. All the 6th Form were asked to dine: and "Roast Goose" was a standard item on the menu. The speeches he delivered on these occasions invariably referred to "feasting on kindred flesh." One boy, who was not in the 6th Form, once remarked that if he were going to dine there he would "starve up for it!"

While I was a small boy at the school there was once a great fight between two of the 6th Form boys. Mr. Wratlslaw, noticing a lot of the boys going up Northgate Street, enquired what it all meant; and learning that a fight was taking place on the cricket field (out Northgate) he hurried to the spot, and arriving before the fight was finished, stopped it. Next morning, after prayers, he addressed the whole school on the subject, and degraded the principals from the 6th Form.

Mr. Wratlslaw was a great entomologist, and withal a great botanist. On one occasion I accompanied one of his excursions of boys to Tuddenham, and was by his side when he found the insectivorous plant "Sundew" (both Drosera rotundifolia and D. anglica) growing in great profusion. "Ah!" he exclaimed in his excitement, "Dr. Hooker ought to have been here!" (Hooker was the author of the handbook from which we studied the elements of botany). Mr. Wratlslaw also showed us the Spanish Catchfly (Silene otytes) which grows fairly plentifully in that neighbourhood.

It was a rule that boys were not allowed to use a knife for sharpening pencils without first obtaining the permission of a Master—a very necessary rule owing to the oak desks having been from time to time much defaced by boys cutting their initials on them. When I was in the 3rd Form the Mathematical Master, Mr. Welch, got rather "fed up" by boys asking permission so frequently. He, therefore, issued an edict to the effect that any boy asking to use a knife should have it taken away till the end of the term. About five minutes afterwards, I asked, "Please Sir, may I use a knife?" He smiled and said, "Bring it up here!" I answered, "I haven't one, I was going to borrow one." He was furious, and exclaimed, "Do you think I sit here to be made a fool of?" He reported me to Mr. Wratlslaw who in due time came in with the "kosh" (cane), and I paid the penalty—three on each hand! (I see in Horatio Bottomley's written account of his prison experience, that the convicts use the word "kosh" for a policeman's truncheon!)

When I was in the 4th Form we had a Master, Lewis le Hardy Sharkey by name. One day we egged on a boy, with threats of a licking if he refused, to say to him, "There's no fool like the fool-hardy." The boy said it—and took the consequence.

Mr. Sharkey, who was quite a classical scholar, used to give us every week a piece of English to be rendered into Latin prose. A boy named Wilfred Cox, a son of the late Sir George Cox, got his father to do it for him. When Mr. Sharkey read the production, he said, "Cox, if you can write Latin in the style of Livy, you had better go into the 6th Form at once. I suspect, however, that your father gave you some assistance."

Mr. Sankey was the best Master I have ever been under. He had the gift of teaching, which many admirable scholars lack. One day, shortly after his arrival in Bury, he took a walk into the country somewhere near Hawstead. Not being quite sure of the way home, he enquired of a rustic whom he saw sitting on a gate. The reply he got was, "You needn't think you're goin' to make a fule o' me, you know the rood to Bury jist as well as I dew."

The School choruses (we never had one till Mr. Sankey came) were as follows:—

Gaudeamus igitur,
Nunquam laetiores:
Appropinquant otia,
Grata post labores.

Canite, plaudite,
Nostri sodales!
Sint omnes hilares,
Omnes vocales!

Old Burians' Dinner.

The Old Burians' Association held their annual London Dinner on Saturday, the 28th January, at the Criterion. The following were present:—D. Alston, J. N. B. Ashton, H. A. Conlan, W. K. Firminger, G. W. Gowen, G. W. Harding, C. J. Hinnell, E. N. Plumridge, C. R. Richdale, G. V. Richdale, C. G. Seth, E. A. Taylor, C. W. Turner, E. T. Whiting, and E. W. Wright. The Headmaster was the guest of the Association.

Archdeacon Firminger presided. After dinner, C. W. Turner proposed the toast of "The School and Headmaster," and spoke of the excellent progress which the School was making at work and at games, and said how very gratifying it was for Old Burians to go back to the School and find them carrying on the fine tradition which was theirs. He also had warm words of praise for the O.T.C., which particularly interested him, as he was an enthusiastic Artist, and would like to see all Burians, on leaving School, join the Artists or some other Territorial Regiment. Colonel Wadmore responded, and as his remarks on the subject of the School List are of particular interest to everyone, they are given in greater detail below.

The Chairman then proposed the toast of "Ourselves—the Old Burians' Association," which was drunk sitting. He told many anecdotes of the School in his day, and asked the question "Are the present Burians as good as we were?"—which provoked a certain amount of discussion, and a good deal of amusement. The general opinion seemed to be that they were. E. W. Wright then proposed the health of the Chairman.

The rest of the evening was given up to old stories, and several new ones, of the School, between O.B.s who in some cases had not met since they left School. The evening finished in a sing-song at the piano.

It is a great pity that more Old Burians do not attend these dinners. They are very jolly and informal affairs, and if only they received the more whole-hearted support of members of the Old Burians' Association (and all O.B.s should be members), they would be even jollier. It is sincerely hoped that there will be more than fifteen O.B.s present at next year's dinner; and in the meantime will everyone endeavour to put in an appearance at the cricket match and dinner which will be held in Bury in July? During the course of the year there are many Old Burians who re-visit the School; if only they could manage to do so on this one Saturday in July, instead of, or better still, as well as, at various odd times during the year, we might have a really representative gathering at the Angel in the evening.

Speaking on the subject of the School List, Colonel Wadmore said that it was one which concerned Old Burians more closely than is perhaps generally realised, inasmuch as it was very largely for their benefit that the Green Book was drawn up in the first place. He pointed out that as the List only went as far as 1900, it was in urgent need of being brought up to date. Colonel Wadmore said that in stressing the importance of this, he had an eye to the future, namely those celebrations which will mark, in 1950, the fourth anniversary of the foundation of the School by King Edward VI. Everyone would agree, he said, that nothing could be more suitable for the commemoration of this event than a revised and up-to-date edition of the School List. First of all, however, he pointed out that it must be brought up to 1925. For this purpose he had requested the assistance of various Old Burians, who had promised to help with the work of amendment and continuation. But if the book was to be in any way complete it must have the active support of all O.B.s, not just of one or two. Suggestions as to the best method of procedure in this work were asked for. It was proposed that at the General Meeting of the O.B.A., which will take place in July, a motion should be brought forward asking for financial support from Old Burians. Letters would then be printed and sent round to O.B.s, with a form attached, which they would be requested to fill in and return. On this form questions would be asked as to their life since leaving School. It was further suggested that a committee should be formed of Old Burians representing periods of five years, and going as far back as possible from the present day. Thus each member of the committee might get in touch with O.B.s of his own time. Colonel Wadmore hoped that some sort of a revised School List might be printed as soon as possible, and this could be improved and amended in subsequent editions.

Various useful suggestions have been put forward by Jack Hinnell, who was unable to be present at the dinner owing to ill health. He is now on the road to recovery and is practically well once more.

Any information, suggestions, or questions, concerning the School List, should be sent to G. V. Richdale, at Courtleroy, Benhill Wood Road, Sutton, Surrey, or to the Headmaster.

London Letter.

When I take up my pen to write this letter I often wonder what it should really be composed of, I suppose lots of news about O.B.s who reside in or around London.

Well, as a matter of fact, I know very little about the activities of O.B.s here. We only meet about once a year for the O.B. Dinner, and there is not much time to talk then because we have to feed. When there is any news other contributors to the Burian snatch it up; for instance, we had a very enjoyable gathering and dinner at the "Criterion" some time ago, but it's no good giving an account of that here, because Richdale has written a special article on it. Then if any London O.B. does anything out of the ordinary in the way of sport or work it is put in the O.B. Notes. So you see I haven't much scope except to write about my own achievements, but of course that "isn't done."

I see quite a lot of Richdale, who is really an awfully keen Old Boy. He is one of the chief agitators for the revision of the "Green Book." He plays hockey on Saturday afternoons, has at last given up wearing Spanish-looking hats, but unfortunately wears pointed shoes instead, and spends his Sundays typewriting. He says he has a lot of correspondence to do, but I think he prefers the noise of his typewriter to the melodious (?) strains of the "wireless" in his neighbours' (and possibly his own) houses.

The Boat Race is drawing near, but I think it is to be rowed in the morning when we hard-working men will be at our desks in the City. But still we can wear our Cambridge colours and congratulate each other when the Light Blues have won.

We had some glorious summer a couple of weeks ago. It was about umpteen degrees in the shade. Those of you who were in London that week-end will have noticed all the pretty girls parading in their new Spring frocks, and all the short-sighted young men wearing their strongest glasses. We have now returned to winter again with snow and fog. Talking of snow, I hope you all enjoyed the skating at Christmas. The pond in Farnham Park is a great spot for skating, and certain O.B.s and another can possibly remember swimming as well as skating there some years ago.

For the benefit of any who may be spending part or all of the holidays in London, I would point out that there are some particularly good shows on just now, "Thark," the "Girl Friend," and the "Wrecker," should not be missed.

I will conclude with a word of advice to the boys, make the most of your 4 weeks holiday at Easter, because there will come a time when you will only have 4 days.

Obituary.

H. GOFF KILNER.

[With acknowledgements to the "Bury & Norwich Post."]

It is with deep regret that we announce the death, with tragic suddenness, on March 15th, of Dr. Henry Goff Kilner, of 118, Northgate Street, Bury St. Edmund's. The doctor, who was only 42 years of age, and had always appeared to enjoy good health, was taken unwell on Wednesday night, and succumbed to a heart attack the following afternoon.

He was attended on Thursday morning by Dr. J. S. Hinnell, and later seen by his father, and it was decided to send for a specialist. The doctor died before this could be done, however.

His death came as a great shock to his family, friends, and patients. He leaves a widow—formerly Miss Simpson, of Horsecroft—and a little son and daughter.

Dr. Kilner was born at Bury St. Edmund's, on January 12th, 1886, and was the second son of Dr. and Mrs. C. Scott Kilner. He was one of a family of eight, having four brothers and four sisters. He was educated at King Edward VI. Grammar School, Bury St. Edmund's, 1896—1903, and Middlesex Hospital; and held the degrees of M.B., B.S. (Lond.), M.R.C.S. and L.C.R.C.P. (Lond.). He was partner with his father, Dr. C. S. Kilner and the late Alderman Dr.

W. J. Caie, since a few years before the war. He was Hon. Radiologist and Hon. Surgeon at the West Suffolk General Hospital, where, and among his private patients, he was exceedingly popular, being a very clever surgeon.

After the outbreak of the Great War, Dr. H. G. Kilner joined the 1/5th Battalion of the Suffolk Regiment, as a combatant, and was later transferred under a general order to the R.A.M.C., going overseas in 1916. He served with the R.A.M.C. at headquarters at Gallipoli, and then in Egypt and France, where he was attached to the staff of the 2nd Calvary Division. He was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the French Government in the latter years of the war. Demobilised with the rank of major, he returned to medical practice at Bury St. Edmund's.

An Opening for Public Spirit.

Under present day conditions there is crying need for a proper changing room for Royalists. There are regular practices or games after afternoon school twice a week, and perforce Royalists change on the School premises—at present where best they can and with some discomfort and inconvenience.

Would some wealthy and public-spirited Old Boy like to give a changing room to the School? Failing this, the less wealthy, but no less public spirited, might like to send a subscription to the "Changing-room Fund" which the Headmaster hereby inaugurates.

"Viva Schola Buriensis."

Hockey.

BURY SCHOOL v. ELY.

This match was played on the School ground on Thursday, February 9th. The weather was ideal, and the ground was in very good condition. The School, winning the toss, played up the hill.

A few minutes after the bully-off, the School, after a very good run through, scored. Ely made several rushes but were unable to secure a goal. After some exciting moments in front of the School goal, the backs managed to clear, and the School forwards, after some accurate passing, scored again. The Ely forwards became dangerous and forced several corners and at last netted the ball. The School replied again and half-time arrived with the score 3—1.

On play being resumed, the visitors made several determined rushes, but the School backs held them in check. However, the end of a fast and enjoyable game came with the score 6—2 in favour of the School. J.C.J.

BURY SCHOOL v. NORWICH.

The annual match between Bury School and Norwich was played on the School ground on the 23rd of February. The game was exceptionally fast. Norwich attacked strongly from the beginning and were soon leading by two goals. The School warmed up after this, and, after many efforts, the forwards managed to score. Norwich scored three more goals and the interval came with the score 5—1.

Johnson and Lacey made some dashing attempts. Smith ii. played a good game in goal, clearing well with his kicks.

In the second half the School held their own much better. The closing score was 6—3 against the School. F.R.S.
Team—

Bury School—Smith ii., goal; Smith i., Charles, backs; Land, Lee, Bird, halves; Johnson, Marshall, Lacey, Brighton, Fulcher, forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. THE OLD BOYS.

This pleasant fixture was played on February 25th in ideal weather. The O.B.s won the toss and played up. They came away with the ball from the bully at a great pace but were pulled up by the School backs and midfield play ensued. After ten minutes, when the O.B.s initial effort had worn down, the School forwards got the ball and scored, almost immediately after, from a good passing bout, they scored again. The O.B.s then rallied, Mc Glone and G. Fulcher being especially to the fore, and after repeated efforts, L. Fulcher scored.

The School forwards soon added a third goal and were considerably aggressive, the halves and backs feeding them finely. In one of the rushes, Marshall, who had been playing remarkably well, collided with one of the backs and unfortunately fractured his collar bone. A substitute having been sportingly allowed, the School still continued to attack and by half-time had increased the score to 5—1.

After the interval the O.B.s tried a re-arrangement. The game had been contested at a great pace, this began to tell on some of the players as an endeavour to increase the rate of the exchanges soon died down, though some sturdy play resulted, the triumvirate of Fulcher brothers, Lacey, Smith i., and Thwaites being especially prominent.

In spite of repeated efforts in which Conlan and Mc Glone took leading parts the Old Boys failed to score again thanks to the good understanding between the backs, and some excellent work by Smith ii. in goal, while the School halves repeatedly hit the ball hard up to their forwards who, playing well together, scored thrice. The School thus winning a very arduous game by 8—1. Teams—

Old Boys—Allen, goal; Cook, Randell, backs; Crack, G. Fulcher, Henshall, halves; Abbott, L. Fulcher, McGlone (capt.), Thwaites, Conlan, forwards.

The School—Smith ii., goal; Smith, i., Charles, backs; Land, Lee, Bird, halves; Fulcher, Brighton, Lacey (capt.), Marshall, Cooper i., forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. HAVERHILL.

This match was played at home on Saturday, 17th March. The School won the toss and played up-hill. In the first half the game was fast and even. Haverhill scored first and the School equalised, but Haverhill replied, making the half-time score 2—1.

In the second half Haverhill had a burst of scoring, adding 3 goals in rapid succession; the School however got together and brought the score up to 5—3. Haverhill added 2 more goals before the end of the game. Final Score, 7—3 in Haverhill's favour. Team—

Bury School—Smith ii., goal; Smith i., Charles, backs; Land, Lee, Bird, halves; Johnson (capt.), Marshall, Lacey, Brighton, Fulcher, forwards.

ROYALISTS v. FOREIGNERS.

A Dayboy, gaily carolling, as blithe as blithe could be,
On Saturday the 3rd of March, did sing this song to me :—
Oh, Friday is a lucky day, in spite of what folks say,
For on it eleven good Royalists the Foreigners did play.
There was Johnson who's Games Captain, Cooper, Brighton, Fulcher, Lee,

Smith, Burdon, Land, and Tilbrook, and in the goal Kelsey.
But though each did his duty, and well deserves of fame,
Lacey, the centre-forward, was the hero of the game.
The Foreigners were Irwin, Roberts, Burnside, Booth, Fellow,
Husk and Gethen, Shoberl, Charles, and in the goal Smith ii.
Alas! for Stokes had left us, and Marshall's collar bone
Put him sighing on the touch-line, so Bird held sway, alone.
The watchers roared their loudest as the Boarders seized the ball,

But instantly the Dayboy halves fiercely on them did fall;
After ten minutes' action the Dayboys took first toll:
'Twas by a sudden onslaught that Lacey scored the goal.
The Royalists exploded, the Foreigners looked bored,
And scarce the game was started when once more Lacey scored.

"The third time will be lucky," said the Foreigners. In vain!
Their castles in the air crashed down as Lacey scored again.
So, having done the hat trick, the Royalists conspired
To get him to repeat it, and, with ambition fired,
He seized the ball in midfield and then to Johnson passed,
Who took it to the goal line, then centred straight and fast;
And spite of the defenders who worked with might and main,
Lacey received it duly, and whanged it in again.
Then the left wing rang the changes, and Lacey scored again.
But Bird flew to the rescue and kept upon his track
And every time the ball came, to his forwards drove it back.
Fellow and Burnside got away, but were adjudged offside,
Then Cooper ere the second half with a sixth goal replied.
Fast from the starting whistle, to win their side renown,
The Boarders played up grandly though they were playing down
E'en Christopher's far voyage upon that stormy sea
Reached not to Eldorado tho' he strove mightily.
Wave on white wave, the Dayboys surged o'er the Foreign main,
Submerging their red foemen and Lacey scored again.
And Cooper scored again, and Lacey scored again.
One last expiring effort the furious boarders made,
And, over confident, the backs to stem it long delayed,

For Roberts, in the circle, a pass from Burnside got,
But, though unmarked, he missed the goal and o'er the cross-bar shot.

The Royalists, thus challenged, assumed a furious roll,
And Lacey, Cooper, Fulcher, each scored a final goal.
With 12 now to their credit their anger they restrain
For after time, e'en Lacey, can't hope to score again.
Ho! three cheers for the Boarders, for the Dayboys three times three,

Now Royalists and Foreigners one for the referee.
And when the teams do play again, may I be there to see.
What was the Boarders total? Hush my young friend! Be mute!

Hither comes sad-faced Orpheus, plainly without his "loot."
Bird will not sing about it. No Boarder has been taught,
At least, so says staunch Mildy, to total up to 000000 . . . .
No! don't ask Mr. Manley unless your coffin's bought.
He'll prove it was ∞ without apparent thought
By linking up the half-time scores, of course, 'T WAS ∞.

BURY SCHOOL v. HAVERHILL.

The return match was played on the Haverhill club ground on March 3rd. The weather was warm and sunny.

The School won the toss and played up-hill facing the sun. For the first half of the game the defence worked well, the opposing forwards breaking through twice. The forwards, well fed by the halves, made several rushes in which Lacey scored the School's first goal. The score at half-time being 2—1 in Haverhill's favour.

At the beginning of the second half the School defence fell off for a short time during which Haverhill added four more goals to their score. After this lapse the defence got together again and held the opposing forwards well in check, allowing them to score one more only, the School forwards attacked strongly, scoring two more goals by Lacey and Brighton.

After a very interesting game of which the score was hardly representative, the School lost 7—8. Team— A.E.B.

Bury School—Smith ii., goal; Smith i., Charles, backs;
Land, Lee, Bird, halves; Fulcher, Brighton, Lacey, Cooper i.,
Johnson (capt.), forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. ELY.

The return match against Ely was played on Thursday,
March 8th, on the Ely ground.

The School forwards broke away several times but were unable to score, owing to the sound defence of the opposing backs. At last, after a good run through, Brighton scored for the School.

Ely in a few minutes replied with an admirable shot. Play was even on both sides until half-time.

After the interval the Ely forwards attacked strongly, and the School goal-keeper and backs vindicated their ability by holding these forwards in check.

The School forwards and halves worked exceedingly well, and the match resulted in a win for the School by 7 goals to 2.

BURY SCHOOL v. CLARE.

This match was played on March 9th, on the School ground. Heavy showers of snow failed to damp the spirit of the game.

The School worked together and through the fine efforts of Lacey, half-time found them leading 3 goals to 2.

On resuming play the visitors made several determined rushes but were held by the School backs. The end came with the score 5—3 in the School's favour, of which Lacey had scored 4. Johnson played a particularly good game.

CHARACTERS OF THE ELEVEN.

††J. C. Johnson (Captain, outside-right). The team has been fortunate in its captain and he has every right to be proud of his XI. By unflinching forethought, tactful leadership and unassuming efficiency as well as by sound and brilliant play he has ensured a pleasant and successful season.

- †§ M. L. LACEY (centre-forward). Has played a very good game all through the season. Has been a consistent scorer and combines well with the other forwards.
- § B. F. LEE (centre-half). Has played a steady and reliable game during the season. His tackling and clearing are excellent.
- § A. E. BIRD (right-half). A very energetic half, who makes ground and feeds his forwards admirably.
- § A. J. BRIGHTON (inside-left). An exceedingly hard-working forward, makes ground and works well with the other forwards.
- § G. H. F. SMITH (left-back). Has developed into a safe back, clears hard and is quick with his stick.
- * D. FULCHER (out-side left). Is a pushing forward, who, being left-handed, can use the toe of his stick with much skill. Is a very good shot.
- * R. H. SMITH (goal). A plucky player who has developed into a strong goal-keeper. Uses his feet and clears well.
- * C. CHARLES (right-back). Has played some very good games, but must try to clear quicker, and not come too far forward.
- * H. R. LAND (left-half). A very safe half who feeds his forwards with judgment, but is apt to be slow in getting the ball away.
- * C. W. COOPER (inside-right). Is a small but determined player, passes neatly and is quick on the ball.

Also played:—

- F. R. STOKES (left half). A very energetic player who tackles extremely well, is fast and makes ground, makes openings, feeds his forwards admirably.
- H. K. F. MARSHALL (inside-right). Is a keen and reliable player, is very neat and passes accurately. J.C.J.

SECOND ELEVEN CHARACTERS.

- * D. H. BURNSIDE (Captain, centre-forward). Has led his team with élan. A dashing player who sometimes misses his shot by being over eager. Has been unfortunate in being unable to award colours through matches being scratched.
- † C. J. TILBROOK (vice-captain, left-back). Generally tackles well, but at times is slow in clearing. Is inclined to miss-hit.
- † T. E. PELLEW (outside-right). A good wing, who covers ground and centres well, but sometimes over runs the ball.
- † G. D. BOOTH (inside-right). A useful forward and tackles well. He is rather weak in shooting.
- † P. E. J. BACON (outside-left). A fast, hard-working player who centres well on occasion, is very prone to overrun the goal-line.
- † F. P. S. SHOBERL (centre-half). A safe half who feeds his forwards well. Has greatly improved during the season but is inclined to keep the ball too long.
- † T. W. PIKE (right-back). A safe back, tackles well, and has a strong hit; is rather slow in recovering.
- O. T. LLOYD (right-half). Tries hard, but is rather awkward when hitting and slow in passing. Should endeavour to make his play a continuous and natural series of motions.
- G. H. BURDON (right-half). A slow player, has only a weak hit; needs to keep going hard all the time.
- G. H. KING (inside-left). An excellent player for his age. He passes with judgment and follows up well.
- A. E. KELSEY (goal). His play is sound and fearless; he must learn to use his feet more, and clear to the wing.

Also played:—

- P. ALLEN (goal). Can play a good game when he likes; is slow in clearing and seldom uses his feet.

* 2nd XI. Colours. † 2nd XI. Half-colours.

Games Review and Prospect.

Hockey has been very popular this season. The first XI. have played a very sound and enterprising game, and should have a good record by the end of the season, despite the loss of Stokes at half-term and the temporary secession of Marshall, due to a fractured collar bone. Smith ii., in goal, has admirably filled a difficult and novel position. Smith i. has been a hard working, hard hitting back, and at times his play has been brilliant. Charles has developed into a useful player, and is beginning to develop the initiative which characterises his play at football. Lee has been throughout a sound, painstaking player, the mainstay of the defence. Land, if not spectacular, is very safe, an excellent point in his play is that he always comes up with his forwards. Bird has developed wonderfully and his play exhibits judgment and pertinacity. The forwards, an admirable line, are to be congratulated on their efforts, whenever given the ball they launched an attack and were to be feared. Marshall and Johnson, on the right wing, had a perfect understanding, and their play was a real pleasure to watch. Cooper, substituting for Marshall, played a clever game, but is inclined to hang back. Lacey has been an ideal centre, if he has a fault it is that he does too much work and might feed his wings more when in mid-field. Brighton and Fulcher are a bustling go-ahead pair, who are rather prone to put their body between the ball and an attacker. It is greatly to be regretted that the East Anglian matches had to be scratched, since, with a double victory over Ely, 6-2 and 7-2, and the team in winning vein, the struggle would have been an Homeric one.

The result of the Royalists and Foreigners' match was a foregone conclusion, with most of the XI. on the Royalists' side and the Foreigners' captain and vice-captain absent, nevertheless the game was gallantly contested and the score is not representative of the play.

The 2nd XI. has given a very fair exhibition. Pike and Tilbrook at back are a promising pair, Shoberl has done well at half, the forwards have taken their cue from the 1st XI. and are quick on the ball, Pellew and King ii. especially seem to have a genius for being in the right place.

The Lancastrians easily won the hockey term shield. The Yorkist 1st XI. sprang a surprise on the Tudors by beating them 8-1, a result achieved by the combination of Johnson and Brighton in the forward line. It is a pity that the Yorkist House is so frequently unable to put a representative 2nd XI. in the field. The Tudor 2nds have maintained their record of unbroken victories.

The first fortnight of next term will be given up to Sports, there will not therefore be much time to train as the heats will have to be run off. We would suggest that the holidays are just the time to get thoroughly fit. Tuck and motors are all very well in their way, but one can have too much of such good things. Speed and stamina are apt to vary inversely as one's maximum rotundity and inertia when it comes to mopping up the last yard instead of the penultimate merangue.

We look forward to a pleasant cricket season. There should be room in the XI.'s for a lot of new blood. Batsmen will be pleased to know that the pitches are looking better than ever, and bowlers, even if they cannot find a useful plantain, still have some consolation in the smaller-sized ball. This season we hope to utilise the so-called 'tennis lawn' for nets, for which use it was originally laid out.

Our heartiest thanks are due to Messrs. Richdale, G. Fulcher, Thurlow, and Randell for refereeing games and matches.

Holiday Recreations.

A certain Master has just discovered a splendid way of utilising the weeks of spare time which we waste during the holidays. For everyone knows that, owing to the length of the holidays, we have nothing to do half the time, the half between meals. His plan is, "Continue your school work during the holidays." We, the Vth Form, loving our work as we do, received his idea with shouts of joy (this was the thunderous roar which the rest of the School heard the other day). The die is cast (though doubtless we shall die outcast from the family circle). I know this is a bad pun but what can you expect from a Fifth Former.

So for the coming month, Bury people will see everywhere schoolboys wearing brown boots, gaudy ties, and gay Oxford bags, carrying under their arms huge text books and encyclopaedias. At the cinema they will hear little C.....t, our eminent exponent of the English language, coughing up the Art-titles into Shakespearian blank verse. L.....d, wandering amid the classic shades of the Abbey Gardens, will daily declaim new passages of Vergil to glad-eyed galaxies of giggling girls.

L.....d, sloshing in the Sudbury mud, will learn "Histriomastix" or endeavour to find out why Charles I. died after he was executed.

B.....n, tired of listening in semi-somnolent 'unease to courses of Lenten sermons will wake up and attack the "Vicar of Wakefield."

K.....y, while watching the latest murder-drama will compare it with the "Merchant of Venice," and L.....e, the clever mathematician, will lecture on how to differentiate between his organ playing and harmonic progressions.

What a happy life they will lead! and next term what sages they will be. How ignorant will the "Tudors" appear who, of course have never been known to work, being vowed to perpetual idleness on entrance.

For who can imagine C.....s watching a "famous" football team at play and at the same time working out his chance of winning the "Daily Errors" weekly football competition by calculating the number of combinations of 40 things taken 2 at a time? or N.....e discovering his blind spot or making practical experiments on the focal length and local strength of optic lenses while strolling through the country lanes with Barton Belles.

Can you see M.....l happily building sand-castles on the beach at Scarborough suddenly dissolve into tears that he may have the wherewithal to test the insolubility of silica?

You may perhaps imagine B.....e munching biscuits at a wedding, but can you see him while taking his morning donkey ride, interested enough in geometry to ask expert opinion on modern methods of crossing the Asses Bridge?

Do you think that S.....l will acquire enough knowledge of the light law of inverse squares to be able to deflect the heavy hand of correction from the most chequered part of his Easter plus fours, by deftly changing the subject of the initial lecture to it, or ultimately save the situation by referring feelingly to "Past and Present"?

Will W.....t, feeding his sows (pronounced soos) cast into their trough the priceless but unsaleable pearls of a modern poet; or seated at the breakfast table devour 17th century bacon? I trow not.

Here is a parting injunction to the Royalists: Get brain fever (you are sure to), or Mumps, or Measles, or Heart Disease, or even Astigmatised Presbyopian Hypermetropian Myopia, but whatever you do, don't blow up Bury while performing a simple chemical experiment, for a bit might fall at Mildenhall and bury the writer before he has written anything for the next Magazine.

O.C.C. Notes.

We welcome this term, as Second-in-Command, 2nd-Lt. A. H. Kennedy, late R.F.A., while Mr. Dancy succeeds, as O.C., Capt. H. T. Hendin, M.C., who left at Christmas to take up a position under the Royal Air Force.

A number of cadets also left at Christmas, with the result that our numbers have dropped to forty-seven, only one new recruit being admitted this term.

Cpl. Lacey, the only candidate for the Written Part of the Certificate 'A' Examination in November, 1927, passed with 889 marks out of a possible 600. He is therefore promoted to the rank of Sergeant.

Four candidates took the Practical Part of this Examination on the 21st Feb.: three of them, Cpls. Bacon, Haddon, and Johnson were successful and sat for the Written Part on the 18th March.

A class of instruction for promotion was held at the beginning of the term under Sergt. Stokes, those qualifying being Grainger, Burdon, and Smith ii.

The following promotions were made this term:—

Cpl. Lacey to Sgt.

L/Cpls. Johnson and Lee to Cpls.

Cdts. Charles, Burnside, Grainger, Burdon, Smith ii. to

Work this term has been mainly subservient to the training of the Certificate 'A' candidates, but on two occasions, we have done some Field Work. In Judging Distances on Feb. 21, in spite of adverse weather conditions, some surprisingly accurate results were achieved, in particular those of Section No. 2 under L/Cpl. Grainger. On March 6th we did an advanced guard scheme along the Barton road, 'B' Platoon acting as the rearguard of the enemy. Some preliminary shooting has been done towards the end of term.

The "Country Life" Shooting Competition was fired on the miniature range at the Barracks, by kind permission of the Commanding Officer, on March 15th. Unfortunately the shooting was not of such a high standard as that of last year. The team was as follows:—Section Leader, Sgt. Lacey; Mathew, Grainger, Hornby, Haddon, Bacon, Smith i., Burnside; Extra man, Kirby; Reserve, Osborn.

The whole Corps attended the Memorial Service to the late Field Marshall Earl Haig at the Cathedral on Friday, Feb. 8rd.

Camp this year will be held at Tidworth Park, and not at Mychett Farm as had been hoped and expected.

Scout Notes.

There does not seem to be very much to shout about this term: for the most part, we have been carrying on, carrying on with the good work. The first part of the short term saw us busy with our usual work but laying special emphasis on the Tenderfoot Tests in view of the approaching District Competition. We were visited and examined on March 6th by the new District Scoutmaster, Mr. G. C. Langham, who expressed himself highly satisfied with the show we put up. Col. Hogge, Assistant District Commissioner, also very kindly visited us that afternoon. The results of the competition are not yet available, but we have hopes that we shall not foot the list of Troops when it is published: we are touching wood!

On Feb. 8rd the Troop paraded in uniform and attended the Memorial Service in St. James's to that good friend of the Scout Movement, Earl Haig.

On March 20th, the Troop had a great stroke of good fortune in the form of an expedition to the Glen, when several fire-lighting and cooking tests were passed without a single casualty. We had some excellent Scouting there, and are very grateful to the owner of that delectable spot for the kind permission she gave us to go there.

During the term, the old vaulting horse in the gym. has been withdrawn from its seclusion and many feats of prowess have been achieved in the efforts of the Troop to get over it; we all did it, even if we had to crawl. Some of the bigger members managed to do it properly—even the oldest showed he could vault it without "nose-diving"—and the youngest will no doubt be able to do likewise next term, after some practice.

The results of the Inter-patrol Competition for once in a way show a novelty; the Woodpigeons have fallen from their high estate—have done the thing properly, in fact, and have sunk to the bottom of the scale. Can you rise as suddenly to the top again next term, oh ye pigeons of the wood? Let us see. Congratulations to the winning patrol on their well deserved success and fine exhibition of team work which produced it; congratulations to the others also on their efforts to oust the Foxes. The actual points were:

1. Foxes	...	...	74.4
2. Hounds	...	...	68.5
3. Rams	...	...	64.5
4. Woodpigeons	...	...	60.6

We are looking forward to fine weather and much outdoor occupation next term.

THE SCOUTER.

Old Boys' Notes.

The Old Boys' Cricket match and Dinner will take place on Saturday, July 28th. It is hoped that all Old Boys will endeavour to keep the date vacant and put in an appearance.

We hear that R. A. R. Robinson is applying for a short Commission in the Air Force, if accepted he expects to go to Baghdad. At present he is amusing himself by playing hockey for Bath.

T. B. F. Ruoff has taken to Law having become articled to a solicitor ; he seems to be getting a varied experience, and is frequently in Town.

We understand that H. Thurlow is going ahead both in business and shorthand. He has recently obtained Pitman's Certificate for knowledge of theory and for writing at the speed of 120 words per minute.

C. L. Haddon has obtained a post in Lloyds Bank and is fortunate in being at Cambridge. Porter, who is also of the banking fraternity, and whom we were glad to see again recently, is also stationed there.

We hear that the Rev. G. Hatt Lipscomb gave a much appreciated musical lecture at Rushden a short time ago.

It will be much appreciated by the Secretary, and relieve the financial situation of the Association, if all Old Boys who have outstanding subscriptions will make a point of paying them in immediately on receiving a request slip. We feel sure it is only necessary to mention the matter in order to secure its performance.

The Assistant Hon. Secretary begs to remind the members of the O.B.A. that O.B.'s ties are obtainable from him, price 4/6 each, at the under mentioned address : The Athenæum, Bury St. Edmund's.

Old Burians who are desirous of purchasing an Old Boys' Blazer are requested to entrust their order to Messrs. A. J. Ridley & Son, Ltd., of Abbeygate Street, Bury St. Edmund's, who will, on receipt of order, despatch the necessary self-measurement form in order to obtain the exact requirements. The price of the Blazer is 45/., it is also possible to obtain one at 37/6, these prices, however, do not include the Pocket Badge which is 9/6 extra.

AN INVITATION TO OLD BURIANS.—As it is not possible, in all cases, to send individual invitations the Headmaster hopes that any Old Burian who may feel disposed to visit his School on the occasion of the Annual Athletic Sports, Thursday, May 10th, will be so good as to accept this notice as a personal and a warm invitation to do so. Notice of intention to be present would be a great convenience.
