VOL. XVI., No. 4.

Editorial.

THE weaving together of the warp of work and the weft of play, to make the web of life at school reproduce the fair pattern designed for it, is always an intricate and difficult business. If the threads snap, the continuity of the work or of the design suffers.

The jig-saw puzzles of the arrangements of forms, time tables, and fixture lists having been satisfactorily settled by the designers, and the production of the tapestry of the term being in full swing, the work was suddenly checked by the ill-timed intervention of a mischievous agent of Eblis who removed many of the busy workers from the scenes of their successful activities to their beds. As a result some of the work has had to be executed by other hands than those designed to gain skill in accomplishing it; and much still remains to be completed.

Those who have maintained the perpendicular throughout, stand in isolated state, proud monuments unto their own prowess; while others, who, after adequate application of physic, have adopted the perpendicular in preference to the prone position, seem very thankful for their restoration, and are no longer lost in wobbly wonderment as to whether the perpendicular is really a position of power or only one of unstable equilibrium. The great majority, who early discovered that it would be very awkward for them if their toes acquired a permanent turn up, now, play on our feelings and move us to pity, not so much by their dire extremities, as by the awful condition of ours after their dances of delight.

The Easter holiday, like the term, will be short: so short that it will be impossible for anyone to forget anything in it, nevertheless we hope it will be enjoyable enough to be long remembered by everyone, and so make a fitting prelude to the Summer term, which is enjoyment unalloyed.

An Old Bury Worthy.

(We are indebted to the East Anglian and A. L. Morton for the following account).

Archdeacon Benjamin Philpot was a descendant of the great city house which boasted the famous Lord Mayors as its origin and gave its name to the familiar artery, Philpot Lane, E.C. The family had settled at Laxford.

Archdeacon Philpot spent his boyhood in Suffolk, and at ten years of age he was sent to Bury Grammar School, "at that day greatly patronised by the well-to-do of East Anglia." The head master at that time was an Etonian, "a good scholar, but self-satisfied and ungenial." It is extremely interesting to be made aware that Baron Alderson and Bishop Bloomfield were sixth form boys in young Philpot's dormitory, and that the least of the fagging duties imposed upon him was that of turning out to do a "warming pan" for their beds on cold nights pending the later hour at which the seniors turned up. Some obligations of a fag were much more serious, and led incidentally to the removal of young Philpot and a great uproar generally. "In that drinking age the commonest form of schoolboy misdemeanour everywhere was an attempt to imitate their seniors and make shift to carouse in bedroom or study on smuggled-in liquor. This exhilarating practice prevailed, of course, at Bury, but the brunt of the risk fell on the juniors, who were dropped out of the windows after dark, and dispatched to the town for the stuff." Young Philpot was a popular messenger on this dangerous service; but one frosty night he fell from the window on to some iron railings and hurt himself so severely that concealment was impossible. There was necessarily a great disturbance, and the upshot was that young Philpot was removed from Bury and "consigned to the stagnant security of a little grammar school at Dedham."

In the Summer of Waterloo year he was ordained deacon at Norwich and preached the ordination sermon in the cathedral. The living of Walpole was included in his inheritance, and he lost no time in creating a vacancy there. Doing duty at Walpole and a thousand other things elsewhere in the neighbourhood, he continued to live at his old home at Huntingfield. Soon after his first marriage in 1816, he took Sibton Park.

After his wife's death, Philpot made tours in the West Country and on the Continent, and when he had spent some further time in Suffolk he transferred to the Isle of Man, where he remained for eleven years, and became Archdeacon of the island. Having refused the bishopric, he decided to leave the Isle of Man, and accordingly removed to Crossingham, Norfolk, while he afterwards went on to Lydney.

He just failed to enter his 100th year.

Debating Society.

More debates have taken place this term as follows:—

On Friday, February 9th, an Impromptu Debate was held. A number of subjects were chosen, which various members were called upon to propose and oppose.

On Thursday, February 22nd, another debate took place, when Hinnell proposed that "If you wish for Peace, prepare for War," while Wayman opposed the motion. This debate proved very interesting. The majority of speakers seemed to be in favour of the proposition. Having been put to the vote, the motion was carried by 10 votes to 4.

On Friday, March 9th, another Impromptu Debate was held.

At a meeting of the Committee it was decided that the Society should consist of the Sixth and Fifth Forms, and that anyone would be admitted as a member when he had made a speech to the approval of the Committee.

The officers of the Society are: Chairman, F. S. Wayman; Vice-Chairman, J. N. B. Ashton; Secretary, C. J. Hinnell; Treasurer, C. G. Seth; Sergt.-at-Arms, M. A. Mumford; Member of Committee, L. de Chateleux. C.J.H.

Cambridge Letter.

The Editor of the "Burian."

SIR,

This letter, you will be pleased to hear, has almost driven your humble but distracted correspondents into the madness of despair. For, to be honest, this has been a term devoid of interest, if not really dull. The number of O.B.'s up here is too small to produce any corporate doings to relate, and there is little to record of individuals. General topics, too, have failed to produce the usual pièce de résistance. There has only been one rag of importance, and even the weather—the last resort of the platitudinarian—has been, well, just ordinary.

No, Sir! Your demands are most unreasonable. You expect us to make bricks, when, by working all day, we are unable even to collect enough straw. That—as the Israelites probably pointed out four thousand years ago with as little result as we obtain to-day—is contrary to all Trade Union Regulations, and you must consider yourself fortunate that we are weak enough to allow you to impose on us in this way.

Sir, you must provide us with straw, and we can then get on and make the bricks.

We remain,

Your sincere but despondent servants,

THE CAMBRIDGE O.B.'S.

Verse.

A FOUNTAIN IN THE MOONLIGHT.

A balmy freshness fills the silent night,
All sounds are quiet, and ev'rything is still;
The moon, in all her glory shining bright,
Lights up the garden and its trickling rill.

Close to the brook, upon the dewy lawn,
A silv'ry fountain hurls its streams away,
And many moonbeams, for a moment born,
Shine for an instant on the glitt'ring spray.

A crash of ringing bells not far away,
Its sudden chiming chorus flings around,
Betokening the coming of the day,
And turns the land of silence into sound.

Now, when the bells awake me from my dreams,
The memory comes back to me, and I
Yet see the glitt'ring fountain with its streams,
And the fair moon still riding in the sky.

Obituary.

C. H. BULLEN.

By the death of Mr. Charles Henry Bullen Bury School has lost one of its most esteemed "old boys." Born in 1840, he entered the School as a Royalist in 1855 and stayed till 1858. For many years he has been a governor, and evinced keen interest in the welfare of his alma mater. In pre-war days it was his delight to invite boys and masters alike to a bountiful repast, followed by a visit to the Theatre or other place of entertainment. It was truly said of him that his hobby was the happiness of others, and many a tale could be told of his unostentatious deeds of kindness. He was one of those who "do good by stealth and blush to find it fame."

Mayor of Bury in 1905-6, he bore a leading part in the Tercentenary Commemoration of the granting of the Borough's Charter in 1606. He was the senior Alderman of the town, a member of the County Council, and he acted on many public bodies, besides being a keen Freemason, and, for a time, Churchwarden for St. James's Parish. About the year 1860 he joined the recently formed volunteer force. He died on March 19th, in the house occupied and owned by successive generations of his family since 1780. H.R.B.

Football.

BURY SCHOOL v. ELY SCHOOL.

Played at Ely on Thursday, 7th December. This game, which was played on a very slippery ground, in dull weather, with a very cold wind blowing up the pitch, resulted in a defeat for us by 3—0. Our opponents, though not larger than ourselves, were quicker on the ball and made more headway. Gooch, in goal, cleared well, and kicked strongly from the goal area. The forward line made several good attempts to score and kept the ball well in the enemy's ground during the first half. Stearn tackled well and threw in cleverly at half-back. Half-time score was 2—0. Team:—

Bury School.—Gooch, goal; Conlan (capt.), Mumford, backs; Stearn, Gould i., Cook, halves; Birmingham, Ashton, Boby, Thomson, Waugh ii., forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. THE OLD BOYS.

This match was played on Tuesday, December 12th, and proved to be the best of the season. The teams were evenly matched and the game was fast. Playing up the hill the School scored just before half-time. The Old Boys responded with a goal almost immediately after. Then a great struggle ensued, but, although the School pressed continuously, there was no further scoring, and thus a splendid game ended in a draw of 1 all.

It would be invidious to single any one out for special mention as all tried their hardest. The touch-line spectators also did their best. Teams:—

Old Boys.—Burlingham, goal; Gough iv., Bird, backs; Boby, McGlone, Tilbrook, halves; Hawkins, Mackenzie, Dowse, T. Ashton, Naish, forwards.

Bury School.—Hinnell, goal; Gould i., Conlan, backs; Stearn, Mr. Tobin, Mr. Hindle, halves; Mr. Manley, Mr. Mackreth, Ashton, Boby, Waugh, forwards.

Referee—Mr. Richards.

CHARACTERS OF THE ELEVEN.

- *†H. A. CONLAN (Captain, right-back). Has proved himself a good captain, keeping his team well together. Was very unfortunate in being unable to play for several weeks. Kicks strongly, and has played a sterling game at back.
- *†T. H. GOULD (centre-half). He has been the mainstay of the team; is equally good in attack and defence. His tackling, kicking, and headwork are extremely good.
- *†J. N. B. ASHTON (centre-forward). Has improved. Is rather handicapped by his lightness. His footwork is neat, but he must learn to go straight for goal or pass, and to shoot harder and at the first opportunity.
- *†E. D. BOBY (inside-right). Is an excellent shot with either foot. He is too inclined to hang back with the idea of helping the halves.
- †J. E. STEARN (left-half). Has improved greatly. He has developed a good kick and tackles with great determination.

- †R. C. GOOCH (goal). Has played several good games this season. To be really successful he requires to be more agile.
- ||A. WAUGH (outside-right). Is an outside with a good turn of speed. His centres are good and more should have been converted.
- ||G. FULCHER (right-half). A player of promise, he does not mark his man closely enough. Has a powerful kick and tackles well. Is rather slow.
- ||M. A. MUMFORD (left-back). On his day plays a good game. Has a strong kick; he should learn to use his head more often and kick with either foot.
- F. S. WAYMAN (outside-left). A persevering player, but must aim at getting better control of the ball and must centre harder.
- L. DE CHATELEUX (inside-left). A very neat player who is handicapped by his size. Must pass more often and harder to his outside instead of trying to do too much himself. His shooting is weak.

* 1st XI. Colours, 1921. † 1st XI. Colours, 1922.

|| Half-Colours, 1922.

SECOND ELEVEN CHARACTERS.

- *C. J. HINNELL (Captain, goal). Has been a capable and encouraging captain. Is a steady but rather slow goalkeeper. Should avoid fielding the ball with his knees apart.
- *D. ALSTON (centre-half). Has played very well all through the season. He always tackles resolutely and sticks to his man well. He has filled this position admirably, but is as yet rather handicapped by his size.
- *M. J. BIRMINGHAM (outside-right). Plays hard and centres well. Is rather slow at tackling and getting away with the ball. Has played a good game throughout the season.
- *C. G. SETH (right-half). Plays a very energetic game. He always goes for his man well and clears hard. His kicking at present is rather inaccurate.

- *G. C. BACON (left-back). Makes a much better back than forward, where he played during the first part of the term. He never flags and does not hesitate when tackling an opponent, but he is rather slow in getting rid of the ball. Should make a good back with plenty of practice.
- *D. H. NORTON (inside-right). Is a bustling forward. He passes well but needs to become rather quicker in getting away and shooting.
- *N. B. THEOBALD (inside-left). Is a very fast forward, is very accurate in passing, and runs with the ball excellently. He shoots hard and well.
- *F. THOMSON (right-back). Has made a safe and reliable back. He attacks an opponent well, but is rather inclined to dribble the ball instead of clearing at once.
- E. BOWYER (centre-forward). Is a fast player, but at times runs over the ball. He passes well and kicks hard into goal. He is the one player who goes straight for goal and follows up a kick into the goal mouth.
- W. E. R. BOND (outside-left). He tries hard but is rather slow both at centering and getting away up the wing. Should improve with size and pace.
- B. SHEARING (left-half). Plays a very good game. He tackles well and passes accurately to his forwards. He is at times rather slow in clearing.

Hockey.

BURY SCHOOL v. EAST ANGLIAN SCHOOL.

This match was played on Saturday, February 8rd, on the home ground. The game was rather uneven, our opponents surpassing us in size and pace. The School worked very hard, especially the halves and backs. The forwards attacked several times but failed to score owing to a strong defence by the opposing side. Stearn, at half, and the two backs, Mumford and Bobby, did good work, while Hextall, in goal, made some excellent saves. The East Anglians scored fairly regularly all through the game, which closed with the score at 14—0 in their favour. The School were unfortunately without the assistance of Ashton and Gould i. Team:— J.A.

Bury School.—Hextall, goal; Bobby, Mumford, backs; Alston, Stearn (capt.), Wayman, halves; Vigors, Birmingham, Waugh, de Chateaux, Hinnell, forwards.

Umpires—Mr. Richards and Mr. Burgess.

BURY SCHOOL v. IPSWICH SCHOOL.

This match was played at Ipswich on February 6th in ideal weather. Considering the team were without the assistance of Gould and Waugh in the forward line they played an exceptionally good game. Comparing the two teams the School looked somewhat dwarfish against the sturdy Ipswichians, but this in no way prevented them from putting up a good fight.

In the first half the Ipswich forwards started off with a rush and were very quickly bombarding the School goal, in spite of the valiant defence of Mumford and Bobby. Fletcher, who played an exceedingly good game all through, was eventually beaten by a cross-shot, after ten minutes' excitement in the School half. The tide then turned and the enemy were put on the defensive. Their hard-hitting backs however saved the situation, and once more the play swept to the School end. A penalty corner resulted in a second goal, and, just before half-time, a third was added, making the score 3—0 in favour of Ipswich.

In the second half the School fared better. Stearn, at centre-half, was a tower of strength, and time after time broke up the Ipswich forward line, which was exceedingly good. Play was general for some time until a smart piece of stick-work by Ashton again brought the School into the Ipswich circle. After an exciting minute of suspense the ball went behind, the School being very unfortunate in not getting it into the net. Play was then of a somewhat erratic nature until the end. A striking feature of the game was the Ipswich half-line, which completely muddled the School forwards, who might have profited more by passing the ball instead of hanging on to it. Slowness in following-up was also a feature of the School play, as the Ipswich backs, although strong hitters, were exceptionally slow in getting on to the ball.

Team:— E.J.M.

Bury School.—Fletcher, goal; Mumford, Boby, backs; Wayman, Stearn, Seth, halves; Birmingham, de Chateleux, Ashton (capt.), Theobald, Hinnell, forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. THE BARRACKS.

The match was played on Saturday, February 10th, on the School ground. The School scored the first goal soon after the commencement of play; very even play then followed, but the soldiers managed to score before half-time.

The second half promised to be exciting but rain spoilt the game by making the ground very slippery. Several chances were missed by the School who were not playing at their best, and the soldiers took the lead by scoring again, but Ashton scored from a good centre by Hinnell, making the score 2—2. The soldiers scored again, and the School only just equalised three minutes before time, leaving the score 3—3. The goal scorers were: Ashton 2, and Mr. Richards 1.
Team:— J.A.

Bury School.—Fletcher, goal; Stearn, Mumford, backs; Mr. Manley, Mr. Mackenzie, Wayman, halves; Mr. Richards, Bacon, Ashton (capt.), de Chateleux, Hinnell, forwards.

Umpire—T. H. Gould.

BURY SCHOOL v. KING'S SCHOOL, ELY.

One of the best matches of the season was played on the home ground on Saturday, February 17th. The weather was absolutely suited for hockey, but the ground was rather slippery. From beginning to end the game was very fast and good hockey was witnessed. The home team's forwards were at their best and always looked dangerous, Gould, at inside-right, being very prominent. After a few minutes' play Ashton got away and scored, but Ely managed to equalize. Before half-time Ely scored again.

In the second half the Bury forwards broke up Ely's defence, and scored three times, twice through Ashton and once through Gould, who scored from a difficult angle. Stearn, who played an exceptionally good game at centre-half, fed the forwards well and strengthened the backs considerably. Fletcher, in goal, made splendid saves. The win did the home team much credit. Result, 4—2.

The most noticeable thing about this match was the precision with which the backs sent the ball to a definite man instead of aimlessly hitting up the field; also the forwards followed up the ball with more determination than usual.
Team:— J.A.

Bury School.—Fletcher, goal; Boby, Mumford, backs; Seth, Stearn, Wayman, halves; Birmingham, Gould, Ashton (capt.), de Chateleux, Hinnell, forwards.

Umpires—Mr. T. M. Ashton and Mr. E. J. Mackenzie.

BURY SCHOOL v. BURY TOWN 2ND XI.

The two teams met on Saturday, February 24th. Play was very even from start to finish but it lacked speed. The passing on both sides was not good, and much fouling made the game slow. The Town were handicapped by not having a goalkeeper. The result was a win for the School by 3 goals to 1. Fletcher played a very good game in goal. The goal-scorers were: Gould 1, de Chateleux 1, and Ashton 1.
Team:— J.A.

Bury School.—Fletcher, goal; Mr. Mackenzie, Mumford, backs; Seth, Stearn, Wayman, halves; Gould, Mr. Richards, Ashton (capt.), de Chateleux, Hinnell, forwards.

Umpire—Mr. D. S. Gough.

BURY SCHOOL v. IPSWICH SCHOOL.

This match was played at home on Thursday, March 1st. The result was a loss for Bury of 13—1. The home team's forwards never got going and very rarely reached their opponents' striking circle. The backs and halves worked hard but the visitors' forwards were very fast, their combination was good and their shooting hard and accurate. Ashton scored our goal. Team:— J.A.

Bury School—Fletcher, goal; Gould, Mumford, backs; Seth, Stearn, Wayman, halves; Birmingham, Waugh, Ashton (capt.), de Chateleux, Hinnell, forwards.

Umpires—Messrs. D. S. Gough, and E. J. Mackenzie.

BURY SCHOOL v. EAST ANGLIAN SCHOOL.

This match was played away on Saturday, March 3rd. Our opponents were larger than us and were allowed to use their weight too much. Our forwards could not get going owing to the uneven ground, but our opponents' forwards, who were used to it, played a good game. The School scored through Waugh, who made a very good shot from a corner. The result was a loss for the School by 9—1. Team:— J.A.

Bury School.—Fletcher, goal; Gould, Mumford, backs; Seth, Stearn, Wayman, halves; Birmingham, Waugh, Ashton (capt.), de Chateleux, Hinnell, forwards.

BURY SCHOOL v. THE BARRACKS.

This match was played on Saturday, March 10th. The result was a win for the soldiers by 5—0. Much fouling spoilt the game. Fletcher played a splendid game in goal. Team:— J.A.

Bury School.—Fletcher, goal; Gould, Mumford, backs; Seth, Stearn, Wayman, halves; Norton, Waugh, Ashton (capt.), de Chateleux, Birmingham, forwards.

Umpire—Mr. Richards.

ROYALISTS v. FOREIGNERS.

This match was played, with the usual keenness and energy, on March 20th. The Foreigners won the toss and elected to play down-hill first. For the first five or ten minutes play was general, until Ashton, after a good individual effort, scored the first goal for the Royalists. Putting forth all their energy, the Foreigners replied with a run through, de Chateleux putting the finishing touch, and thus equalising.

This seemed to make the Royalists show what they could do, and Hinnell scored two very good goals in a few minutes, followed by one from Ashton shortly afterwards. The Foreigners again forced the play into the enemies' half, and, from a nice pass from Vigors, de Chateleux again netted the ball on the stroke of half-time.

Both sides commenced play with renewed energy, and play was general for some time and somewhat uninteresting, being chiefly a sample of hard hitting by the Foreigners' backs.

Ashton and Hinnell were playing an exceedingly good game together, and Bobby and Birmingham were quite safe at back.

For the Foreigners, de Chateleux put in some good individual work, but lacked a partner to combine with.

Before time, Ashton, twice again, showed his superiority, and the game ended in a win of 6—2 for the Royalists, after an exciting and evenly-contested match. Teams:— E.J.M.

Royalists.—Gooding i., goal; Boby, Birmingham, backs; Seth, Wayman, Hall i., halves; Carter, Hinnell, Ashton (capt.), Bond, Richdale, forwards.

Foreigners.—Fletcher, goal; Wreathall, Mumford, backs; Doolittle, Stearn (capt.), Vigors, halves; Woodgate, Lovelock, Alston, de Chateleux, Whiting, forwards.

Umpire—Mr. Mackenzie.

O.T.C. Notes.

This term the Corps has done more drill than is usual for this time of the year. It has been working hard for Certificate "A," which, we are pleased to say, Wayman, the Candidate for the Exam., passed. We congratulate him on his success.

We are much indebted to C.-S.-M. Faiers, of the Depôt, for coming up on several occasions and smartening up the Corps considerably, especially in arms drill.

The Corps will have done about thirteen drills by the end of term.

I should like to remind everyone that Camp is again coming round. It is great fun and should not be missed. Remember, we do not have to drill the whole day long, in fact very little drill is done.

PROMOTIONS.

Lance-Corporal Hinnell to be Sergeant.
 Cadet Birmingham to be Corporal.
 Cadet Seth to be Lance-Corporal.
 Cadet Ashton to be Lance-Corporal.
 Cadet de Chateleux to be Lance-Corporal.

Dated 31/1/28.

The Missionary Offertory this term amounted to £1. It has been allocated to the Canadian Maple Leaf Association.

The School attended divine service at the Cathedral, according to immemorial custom, on Ash Wednesday.

The following boys were confirmed on Thursday, March 15th, by the Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, at the Cathedral:—Bacon i., Crack, Fulcher i., Gooding i., Norton, Smith, Thomson, and Thurlow.

On March the 22nd some of the senior boys and the masters attended Mr. Bullen's funeral.

We welcome Mr. W. A. C. Bell, as Senior Classical and English Master, and Mr. G. A. Tue, as Geography Master.

Mr. Bell is a Master of Arts of the Royal University of Ireland and comes to us from St. Columba's College, Dublin.

Mr. Tue is an M.A. of Pembroke College, Oxon., and a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society. He is a prizeman of Oxford University, having obtained the Herbertian Prize. He also holds the University's Diploma for Education as well as for Geography in which subject he headed the list. We hear that recently he has examined the Geography papers of the Oxford Senior Local Candidates. During the war Mr. Tue was twice wounded and obtained his captaincy. He comes to us fresh from new labours at Oxford at the Research Students' School of Geography.

Another consignment of very readable books, ranging from excellent translations of the "Iliad" and "Odyssey" through more modern authors to the "Travels of Baron Munchausen" has been added to the Library.

A page of an old illuminated Italian manuscript, the gift of J. F. Tattersall to the Headmaster, has been placed in the Library. The book from which it is taken is a translation from the Arabic by Gerhard of Cremona into the Italian, its title being "Avicenna, Canon de Medicina."

During the absence of Mrs. Mackenzie at the beginning of term, Mr. E. J. Mackenzie carried on with the prep. boys. Since her return he has been a persona grata at school and especially on the hockey field.

We have been glad to see the following Old Boys up this term:—Messrs. T. Ashton, Conlan, D. Gough, Steed, and Symonds.

Besides forming the nucleus of the Bury hockey teams we are pleased to hear that several Old Boys play for the County, these latter are C. R. Yelloly, T. M. Ashton, and H. J. Bird, who is the Captain of the Suffolk team.

The following have been awarded School Hockey honours by the Hockey Captain (J. Ashton):—J. E. Stearn, 1st XI. Colours; M. A. Mumford, T. H. Gould, W. Fletcher, Half-Colours; the team, Stockings.

The Lancastrian Hockey Captain (J. Ashton), has given House Colours to Birmingham, Wayman, Boby, Norton, Bacon i., Carter, and Hall i.

The Tudor Hockey Captain (M. A. Mumford), has awarded House Colours to Stearn, Waugh, Alston, Fletcher, and Lovelock.

The Yorkist Hockey Captain has bestowed House Colours on Hinnell and Seth.

The 2nd XI. Captain (D. Alston), has awarded the following honours:—2nd XI. Colours—Seth, Cook, Norton, Theobald, Hall, Fulcher. Stockings—Bowyer, Godbolt, Hextall, Thomson.

We tender our congratulations to all the recipients.
